

LeBit -Apps for Microsoft Business Central

Sell easily with the LeBit Commission App

LeBit Commission App create a commission statement for your Representatives

With the LeBit Commission App you can create a commission statement for your representatives in an easy and comfortable way.

The Commission App allows you to map extensive commission concepts after the setup is complete and thus allows a sales-oriented marketing of your products.

The commission rates can be set individually, whether they are either customer, customer commission group, article, article commission group, or a combination of these.

Reserves to be settled can be defined whether they are only to be calculated for cleared items.

It is also possible to assign commission items that were generated by the sale to representatives at a later date.

Exact overview of which commissions are still outstanding and which have been settled.
