“Going Against the Culture:
3 Principles to Believers
Regarding Work”
Colossians 3:22-4:1

Colossians 3:22-4:1, “Bondservants, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. 23 Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. 25 For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality. 4 1Masters, treat your bondservants justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.”

1. As a believer, you are to do your best at your job at all times. (22)

Colossians 3:22, “Bondservants, obey in everything those who are your earthly masters, not by way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.”

Colossians 3:17, “And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

Application 1:

For those of you who have a job, what does the way you do your work---day in and day out---say about the Jesus you claim to follow?

As a student, what does the way you conduct yourself in the classroom and on the field say about the Jesus you claim to follow? _____

Application 2:

Are you doing your best at school and or your job? _____

What can you do to make your time at school and or work an “act of worship”? _____

What needs to change in your heart for you to do all things well? _____

2. As a believer, you need to remember “Who” you work for. (23-25)

Colossians 3:23-25, “Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, 24 knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. 25 For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.”

Matthew 25:23 (NASB), “His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave. You were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’”

Proverbs 10:4 (NIV), “Lazy hands make for poverty, but diligent hands bring wealth.”

Proverbs 13:4, “The soul of the sluggard craves and gets nothing, while the soul of the diligent is richly supplied.”

Application:

Now that you know that Jesus is really your “boss”, how will you do your schoolwork, extracurricular activities and or your job differently?

Do you think of the things you do at school or job as having an impact for eternity? _____

What should be your motivation at school or your job now that you know more about what the Bible says? _____

3. As a believer, treat others the way you want to be treated. (4:1)

Colossians 4:1 “Masters, treat your bondservants justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.”

Application:

Does this verse change your perspective about how you do your job or classwork knowing that your true “Master” is in heaven? _____

If you have a job have you ever been treated unfairly? If so, how did you handle it? What will you do differently? _____

At school, has your teacher or coach treated you unfairly? If so, how did you handle it? What will you do differently? _____

Think About It:

Application:

What will you do differently at school or your job now that you’ve heard this message? _____

Do people know that you are a believer by the way you do your job or how you handle getting your schoolwork done? _____

Are you a person of integrity at school and or at work? _____
